RESIGNATION OF REV. DR. D. C. PAGE.

It will be perceived by the following letter from Dr. Page, that he has resigned the Rectorship of Christ Church. It has been heard of by many with tears, and by none with indifference, but we are pleased to be able to say, as will appear by the reply of the vestry, hereafter to be published, that our friend, (so familiar to the readers of the COMMERCIAL,) by his repeated contributions to its columns, particularly in the recent struggle for the assertion of the authority of the Government), is, while divesting himself of the powers of a rector, to sustain for the balance of his life, a relation implying a perpetual seat in the chancel whenever present at divine service, and when in health the occasional use of the pulpit. The Doctor has now attained his 66th year, and having been ordained as far back as the year 1825, seems to require for the remainder of his days a partial suspension of active pastoral labor. We congratulate the congregation upon the beautiful church edifice they are now engaged in erecting, and understand they will spare no pains to secure the services of a suitable rector:

To the Vestry of Christ Church, Allegheny City.

DEAR BRETHREN: In view of the fluctuations of my health, rendering as they do the uninterrupted discharge of the pastoral office during a matter of uncertainty, I hereby, very re-pectfully resign the rectorship of Christ Church, to take effect on the 1st of October next. In taking a step so important, I may be misunderstood in saying that, imperfect as has been the exercise of my ministry among you, it has not been without its fruits in laying the foundation of our church in this locality and its vicinity broad e and deeper.

I retire, however, to the field, fervently invoking God's choicest blessings upon you and upon yours; and looking for the future welfare of your parish with confidence and serenity, I am, dear brethren, your faithful friend and servant, for Christ's sake, DAVID COOK PAGE.

Attest: REV. Dr. Robinson elected. Unanimously.

THE resignation of the Rev. Dr. Herrick Johnson, of the pastorate of the Third Presbyterian (N. S.)church in Pittsburgh, has been accepted, and Dr. Johnson will be immediately dismissed at his own request. His congregation reluctantly acceeded to his wishes, and would have given him leave of absence for several months, but they were assured by him that he regarded it as his imperative duty to remove from Pittsburgh. The serious condition of Mrs Johnson's health demands that her residence should be in some other locality more salubrious than our own. Dr. Johnson intends to spend the winter at Marquette, Mich., to which place he will remove as soon as his private business affairs are arranged, but he promises to favor us with an occasional visit, and thus his host of friends here will, no doubt, have an opportunity sometime during the ensuing winter of hearing him again. Dr. Johnson is a faithful and hard working pastor, and an eloquent and popular preacher. His congregation, in accepting his resignation, and as a token of appreciation of his services during his pastorate, made him a present of one thousand dollars.

THE Rev. Professor Samuel J. Wilson, D. D., pastor of the Sixth Presbyterian (O. S.) Church, in Pittsburgh, and Professor in the Western Theological Seminary, will preach in his church to-morrow morning and in the evening. The Sabbath-school of the Sixth Presbyterian Church is one of the largest and best disciplined in the city.

REV. ALEXANDER CLARK, A. M., pastor of the Fifth street Methodist Church, has been visiting his relatives in Ohio since the adjournment of Conference. He returned to his post on Friday afternoon.

THE Rev. W. B. Watkins, of the Pittsburgh M. E. Conference, is writing admirable letters to the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, from the White Mountains.

CHRIST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, corner Penn and Hancock streets, Rev. Dr. Morgan pastor, has been thoroughly renovated and its general appearance greatly improved. Dr. Morgan has enjoyed great success during the few months that he has been settled over the congregation of this fine church. He is one of the most powerful preachers in the Methodist connexion in this part of the State.

THE new Methodist Episcopal Church, at Lawrenceville, is rapidly being completed. The congregation will probably occupy it by the first of November, if not earlier.

WE are glad to learn that the Rev. Henry D. Moore, who was formerly pastor of the Plymouth Congregational Church in Pittsburgh, and is now settled over the Vine Street Congregational Church in Cincinnati, is gaining an eviable distinction in the latter city for pulpit eloquence and pastoral labors. Mr. Moore was always an earnest thinker and forceable speaker, and certainly will not fail to attract large congregations in his new field.

THERE is no truth in the rumor that the Rev. Dr. Riddle has been called to the pastorate of the Third Presbyterian (N. S.) Church, nor is Dr. R., a candidate for that position.

WITH an exception or two, all the churches in the two cities are re-opened and they look unusually comfortable and inviting. Nearly all of them have been repainted, cleaned and otherwise improved, and large congregations have attended the stated services in such as are now re-opened. The preachers have generally derived much benefit in a physical way during the few weeks' rest they have had from the wearing labors of their calling, and are now taking hold of their duties again with renewed energy. We have no doubt but what the general anticipation in the different churches of a healthy revival this winter will be fully realized.

THE rusticating season of '67 is about over, so far as our city pastors are concerned, who, we believe, with one or two exceptions, have already returned from their accustomed summer vacation, and are now prepared to resume the legitimate work of their sacred office in our midst. We do not propose to extend our remarks on the subject of these annual "breaks" in the regular services of our city churches. There are, no doubt, many good reasons why a hard working pastor ought to relax his energy at a certain season of the year, when the greater part of their congregation have taken themselves to the country, but we wish to say that some better provision ought to be made for those who stay at home than was the case during this last summer. A few pulpits were regularly supplied, a few others were closed for many weeks in succession, and the pastoral work wholly neglected. Many sick persons were seriously in want of proper spiritual advisers, and were almost entirely unable to obtain them. We personally assert that in one particular case application was made at the residence of eight different clergyman, to visit a dying young man, and not one of them was in the city at the time, and the sick man was obliged to accept such inadequate service as his friends were able to procure for him. Perhaps there may have been cases of a kindred character, but the above one is sufficient, we think, to indicate to our city ministers the importance of at least making ample provision for their congregations during their annual vacations.

CHILDREN'S JUBILEE.—The Sunday schools of the various Methodist Churches in the city and vicinity will meet to-morrow at 3 p. m., in the audience room of the First Methodist Church, Fifth street, for the purpose of hearing a sermon by Rev. Edwin M. Long, of Philadelphia, and enjoying a concert of singing. Mr. Long preaches to children in a very attractive way, illustrating his sermons by large oil paintings on canvass. He has always succeeded in securing large audiences and leaving the best of impressions. It is hoped that all the schools programmed for this occasion will be out in full force, and that many others who may command the time, will also attend the services. Being the first Sabbath of the new Conference year, it should be a time of especial interest and importance.

REV. G. G. WENTZELL, the newly appointed pastor of the Birmingham Methodist Church, comes to the city with an honorable record as a loyal man from the West Virginia District, where he has for years been prominent in the advocacy of mutual rights and human freedom. He is an active reformer, a capital preacher, and a successful pastor.

MR. ROBERT M. BROWN, a recent graduate of the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, has received a unanimous call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian Church at Ebensburg, Pa.

REV. MR. HANNA, former pastor of the Fifth U. P. Church, Philadelphia, has accepted a call to the Second U. P. Church (late Dr. Pressly's), Seventh street, Pittsburgh, and is about entering upon his duties. This is a valuable acquisition to our city.

REV. H. WARD BEECHER defines his views on Calvinism in a sermon contained in last week's issue of the New York Independent. His statements are unique, clear and very interesting. It is a characteristic discourse and worthy the attention of all.

RETURNED.—Rev. Jas. Robison, pastor of the Third Methodist church, Pennsylvania Avenue, has been re-appointed by the Conference just adjourned, to his fifth year's pastorate there. He formerly served the same church for several years.

REV. V. LUCAS has been re-appointed to his fourth year, pastor of the First Church, Allegheny. The new discipline permits of indefinitely continued pastorates when preachers and people mutually prefer such relations.

REV. JOHN H. WAGNER, pastor of Graces Church, his congregation and numerous friends will be pleased to hear, has returned from his summer vacation, somewhat improved in health, and will resume his pastorial duties tomorrow, preaching morning and evening. Mr. Wagner is an earnest an able laborer in his Master's work, and has met with much success since his location in our midst.

THE Theological Seminary, at Allegheny, opened on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, with a lecture from Professor Jacobus, on "The Ministry for the Time." It was a very stirring discourse, well timed and pungent, with a searching analysis of what is required in the preacher and the pastor, especially in this day of mental and moral excitement. The living preacher, not the dead preacher; the genial, earnest, considerate man, and not the dry sticks in the pastor, to tend and manage the flock, and not the hireling nor the recluse: the student and not the idler. This, as the demand of the time, was well set forth. The great questions of modern controversy were touched in a brief and able exposition of their fallacies, and with copious illustration, stimulating thought in the attentive listener. The Seminary opens, we are told, with a large accession, about thirty having already entered as new students, and more are expected.

The Third United Presbyterian Church, Allegheny, will be re-opened for public worship tomorrow morning, and there will also be services in the afternoon and evening. The services in the morning will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. R. Kerr, and in the evening by Rev. Jno. G. Brown, D. D.

Thomas House Taylor, D. D., rector of Grace Church, New York, died on the 9th inst., at West Park, on the Hudson. He was a South Carolinian by birth, and was settled at Grace Church in 1835, while it was in its pupilage. His eloquence as a writer and speaker attracted a select congregation, and built up the church to a commanding position. In theology he was a Low Churchman; learned, witty, pleasant and argumentative.

THE following shows the growth of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States in ten years:

	1856.	1866.
Number of Dioceses.....	39	47
" Bishops.....	35	41
" Clergy.....	1,855	2,479
" Parishes.....	1,283	2,030
" Communicants.....	105,083	161,824

Showing a gain in the number of clergy of over 25 per cent., and in the number of parishes of nearly that—while it shows an addition to the Episcopal communion of nearly one-third.

A PANORAMA of Japan has been constructing, and says that if the two branches of the Presbyterian Church shall be re-united, they will have 50 synods, 685 presbyteries, 4,172 ministers, 395 licentiates, 585 candidates, 4,182 churches, 407,880 communicants, 358,265 in Sabbath schools. The contributions would be for foreign missions, perhaps, $500,000; home missions, $250,000, education, $250,000; publication, $50,000; congregational, $5,000,000; other objects, $1,500,000. In Canada consolidation is proposed to such an extent as will leave only two large synods in British America.

GEN. M'CLELLAN TO REMAIN ABROAD.

The personal friends of Gen. GEN. CANBY WILL FOLLOW GEN. SICKLES'S POLICY.

Private letters from reliable sources in Charleston, received here, assert that General Canby has fully determined to pursue the policy marked out by General Sickles, and to enforce the system of orders, rules and regulations which he had established in that district. It is well known that General Sickles had instituted for the people of his district a code of laws and regulations, which were unanimously admitted were more just and beneficial in their operation than any that had been vouchsafed them by legislative authority for many years.

Pittsburgh in 1799.

Mons. Tarascon, in the month of August, 1799, traveled from Philadelphia to New Orleans. In his journal, which has been published, he speaks of Pittsburgh as follows: "Here is the moment to say something about Pittsburgh. Pittsburgh has about four hundred houses. It is destined to become one day a very considerable city, on account of its position, which is an advantageous as pleasant; on the confluence of two fine rivers, both of which can bring from a distance of over two hundred miles the products of the interior, and the connection with the Ohio river, that offers a vent more than sufficient for all that agriculture and manufactures will be able to furnish one day in that part of the United States. At this moment that city has no other commerce but that of flour, whisky, and window-glass. Two glass factories are already in operation, and a third one is ready to start. There are about thirty stores, the greatest number of which don't belong to those who keep them, but to merchants living in Philadelphia or in Baltimore. None of these stores look to be rich, and all of them are supplied from the two cities above mentioned. There are several cutlers, two of whom are doing pretty well. Nothing can be sold in that city unless at Philadelphia prices, and on credit.

"We put up at the same inn with a merchant from Illinois, who had just made his purchases in Philadelphia. It was in vain we questioned him; no information could be obtained of him; nothing at all could be drawn out of him. That close personage was Wm. Morrison, a merchant of Kaskaskias, and a nephew of Guy Bryon, a merchant of Philadelphia."

For the past two years, an Irishman, named Thomas Cahoe, living in Cleveland, has kept a keg of powder in an out building. Thinking it was becoming damp and useless, he concluded to test it Wednesday afternoon. Taking a handful of the powder, he placed it a short distance from the keg and touched it off with a match, when the whole exploded, including that in the keg, killing Cahoe instantly. The deceased was a laboring man, and leaves a wife and children.

GREAT FIRE AT CRESTLINE.

Thirteen Business Houses Consumed.

Two Hotels Destroyed---Narrow Escapes.

Loss About $70,000---Insurance About $20,000.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

CRESTLINE, O., September 13, 1867.

Fire was discovered about two o'clock this morning in the rear of the Franklin House, in this place, which spread with frightful rapidity owing to the inflammable material of the hotel and all adjoining property, and all efforts to stay the conflagration failed, and in less than one hour and a half the entire square fronting the Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati Railroad track on the east, which embraced every building from the Continental hotel northward to Jenner's old corner, was a mass of smouldering ruins. Thirteen places of business were consumed with all their contents, with a few trifling exceptions. In fact, so short was the time from the first alarm until the entire block of the frame structures were enveloped in one vast sheet of flames, it is a matter of wonder that any moveables were saved.

Eight or ten families, with children, occupied rooms in various parts of the buildings, besides the large number of railroad lodgers at the Western Hotel and Franklin House, many of whom made narrow escapes in their night clothes, few of them saving anything from the devoring element except what was on their backs. A report prevailed this morning that one man was missing among the lodgers in the Franklin House, but it can be traced to no creditable source.

Many buildings in the north-east portion of town, the direction the wind was blowing, were on fire from lying cinders, but were staved by the efforts of their occupants. The fine Continental Hotel at the junction of all our railroads, was in imminent danger of being frequently on fire from the intense heat of the burning buildings, not twenty feet off, but with the efforts of our citizens, favored by the wind blowing the flames in an opposite direction, the hotel was saved sustaining but trifling damage. The Tremont House, and other buildings fronting the railroad track on the west side, were frequently on fire, but were saved with but small damage.

The fire company of our neighboring town of Galion came to our aid, and the companies of Bucyrus were at their depot awaiting transportation here, but before a train arrived for them they were telegraphed that their services would not be needed, the fire having been gotten under control. Their prompt response, however, to our call for help, is gratefully appreciated by our citizens, and will long be remembered. The Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati Railroad Company's Baggage building was destroyed, but all the Baggage was saved.

The morning express trains for Cleveland and Pittsburgh were somewhat delayed here in consequence of the obstruction of the fire.

There are conflicting reports as to the origin of the fire, but it is generally believed to have been the work of an incendiary. The sufferers, with their estimated losses and amount of insurance, are as follows:

Charles Courtright's saloon, stock and fixtures, valued at $5,000; building owned by Daniel Balst, valued at $2,000, insured for $400 in Knox Mutual.

Franklin House, fixtures and furniture, owned by Mrs. A. W. Courtright, valued at $1,000; insured for $6,500 in the Knox Mutual.

Davis & Newman's clothing store; partial loss, estimated at $1,000; fully insured in Midas and German Insurance Companies, of Cleveland.

Lindsay & Lovejoy's saloon, loss on stock and building $6,000; insured for $2,000 in the Home, of Columbus.

G. A. Fisher, barber, loss of stock, household goods and building, $3,000; insured for $1,200 in the German, of Cleveland.

John Ralyhan, saloon and fixtures, $500; no insurance.

Fred Schoek, bakery, household goods and building; value $8,000; insured for $2,000 in German and State of Cleveland.

Old Washington House, owned by Daniel Balst; valued at $8,000; insured for $2,000 in Knox Mutual. The building was occupied by Stabley & Newman, clothiers, who sustained a partial loss of $1,000; fully insured in Knox Mutual and Midas, of Cleveland.

H. A. Schoeber, shoe store, lost $1,000 in stock and household goods; no insurance.

O. L. Lawson, jeweller, and Dr. Wm. Pope, druggist, whose joint loss will not exceed $300, not insured.

Adam Hoffman, loss on building and grocery stock, $6,000; insured for $1,000 in the State, of Cleveland.

Various smaller losses were sustained by families and others, the exact amount of which it is impossible to ascertain.

SAN FRANCISCO.

An Amusing Election Wager---Formation of Grant Clubs---Democratic Majority in the Legislature---The Congressmen Elect.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 11.—An immense crowd was attracted to-day by the fulfillment of an amusing election wager. Higgins (Democrat) had a hand organ the whole length of the principal street, playing as he went, and collecting money for the benefit of the Protestant and Catholic Orphan Asylums. The leading local candidates, both defeated and successful, attended. The street was jammed for hours, and the business haunts deserted. Over five thousand dollars in gold and silver was collected.

Clubs favorable to the election of Grant to the Presidency are being formed throughout the State.

The Democrats have a majority of at least twenty on joint ballot in the next Legislature. Eugene Casserly and J. P. Heg, both old free-soil Democrats and opponents of secession, are talked of for Senator.

It is now known that the German voters organized throughout the State to oppose Sabbath legislation, and voted the Democratic ticket by the thousands for that purpose.

Higby (Union) is certainly elected to Congress in the middle district. He was the most radical candidate in the field. The two Democratic Congressmen elect are Axtell, of San Francisco, who favored the war and supported Lincoln, and Johnson, of Sierra Loway, of Sctthe reputation.

The receipts of wheat since July first were two million sacks of one hundred pounds each, equal to two-fifths of the entire receipts the last harvest year. Price advanced 2½@5 cents.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 12.—The State Fair, the first industrial display yet held, is attended by large crowds. Gen. Bidwell delivered the annual address last night.

It is now ascertained that the Democrats have eighteen majority on joint legislative ballot.

The Holy Father has named a congregation to seven Cardinals, to whom he has entrusted the duty of arranging the preliminaries for the meeting of the council.

Farragut at Stockholm.

STOCKHOLM, September 13.—The United States steamship Franklin, Admiral Farragut, accompanied by the Canandaigua, Ticonderoga and Florence, arrived here recently, after visiting several places in the Baltic. The customary salutes were fired. The great feature was a fete in the Palace, given by the King, attended by Admiral Farragut, his officers, and many Swedish dignitaries. Toasts were drank, speeches made, and the utmost good feeling and enthusiasm manifested.

Frankfort Money Market.

FRANKFORT, September 13, Evening.—5-20 bonds steady at 78½.

Liverpool Markets.

LIVERPOOL, September 12.—Cotton quite active, prices rule good. The sales for the week were 80,000 bales. Stock in port 488,000, of which 260,000 are American. The recent decline in prices is part due to the decline in gold, which is greater than for some years. Breadstuffs and provisions are quiet.

LIVERPOOL, September 13, Evening.—Cotton is lower, owing to the improved tone of the trade report. Sales of the week amount to 70,000 bales, including 10,000 bales, at 8½d for middling uplands, and 9¼d for Orleans.

Breadstuffs firmer. Corn is now quoted at 30s 6d. Peas, 39s. Lard and barley are 34s. Wheat 10s 2d@10s 6d for California. The market closed quiet and steady.

Provisions—Beef advanced 2s 6d, and is selling at 122s 6d. Lard advanced 3d; sales at 80s 6d. Cheese advanced 6d; quotations 52s. Pork and bacon unchanged.

Produce—Tallow advanced to 44s 6d. Spirits of turpentine declined 6d. No change in other articles.

MANSFIELD, OHIO.

Enthusiastic Union Meeting---Speeches of Senator Wade and Deacon Gray.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

MANSFIELD, O., September 13, 1867.

A large and enthusiastic Union meeting was held in Shelby to-day. Senator Wade spoke for about two hours in his usual forcible manner. His denunciations of the Democratic party for its complicity with the rebellion were withering. He charged the Democratic leaders of several of the Northern States with making a positive agreement prior to the breaking out of the rebellion with the rebel leaders to support secession, even so far as to carry New York, Pennsylvania and Indiana out of the Union.

Deacon Gray followed Mr. Wade, but had only spoken a few minutes when he was interrupted by the storm. He will speak this evening.

Senator Wade is now in this city at the Wiley House, where many of our citizens are paying their respects to him. He speaks in Ashland to-morrow.

MASSIVE FACTORY BURNED.

N. H. Dudley's preserve factory at Keyport, New Jersey, was destroyed by fire last night. Loss $100,000, partially insured. A large number of people were thrown out of employment.

FORGER ARRESTED.

Charles Albert Damonrioz, a French draughtsman, has been arrested and held for examination as the author of several forgeries in June and July, on the Stuyvesant and Tradesman's National Bank, aggregate $25,220. He operated extensively in stocks, and subsequently retired to a country seat at New Rochelle with his family, where he was captured a few days ago.

Indian Religious Ceremony.

A correspondent with the Indian Commission going up the Missouri river, writes as follows: Some of the religious ceremonies of the Yankton Indians, which have been witnessed by Gov. Faulk as recent as 1864, would hardly be believed by many. The most ridiculous of these rites is the worship of the sun, which takes place in the summer season. A tall pole is driven in the ground, and around the centre pole a number of shorter poles are stuck down and the top is covered like a miniature circus pavillion, and drawings of horses and wild animals are placed as emblems on this altar. The worshippers for two days mark around the altar, blowing and tooting a short whistle made of bone. On the third day the converts, consisting of young men, approach the altar, when a leading man of the tribe takes a sharp knife, and grasping as much flesh as he can in his hand on the breast of the convert, he plunges the knife through the flesh, and ties one end of a rope in the gash. The other end of the rope is tied to the top of the center pole, when the convert travels round, dancing, singing and pulling back on the rope until the rope tears out the flesh, and the young man falls down exhausted. He is then considered a brave man, and is initiated in a secret order, whose governing principles are a contempt of death, the capture of scalps and the stealing of horses. At the close of the ceremony of Sun Worship, the young girls, sisters of those who went through the process of tearing their flesh, come up and cut out a slice of flesh from their shoulders and then cast the "shoulder steak" upon the altar, as a propitiation to the Great Spirit. It is odd to think that at the present time a trip direct from St. Louis can be taken to the spot where these barbarous practices can be witnessed.

THE CAPITAL.

SECRETARY SEWARD'S REMOVAL.

Failure to Purchase the Island of Samana.

The Spanish Government Won't Sell.

The Anticipated Trouble in Maryland.

Business of the Pardon Bureau.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 13, 1867.

Cabinet Meeting.

The Cabinet meeting to-day was unusually brief and unimportant. All of the members were present but Gen. Grant and Secretary Browning, the latter being absent from the city.

Seward's Removal.

Those who are in the confidence of the President express the opinion freely to-night that Secretary Seward will be removed before the 17th of the present month, the day on which the President visits Antietam. They say that Mr. Johnson has declared this to be his intention, but it has been found impossible to verify the statement, and it is telegraphed for what it is worth.

The Naval Station in the West Indies.

The Government has received information from the American legation at Madrid to the effect that the negotiations in progress with the Spanish Government for the purchase by the United States Government of the Island of Guano, one of the Bahama group, for a Naval station, have come to an end. Assistant Secretary Seward visited the Island last winter, and approved of the site, whereupon the State department at once entered upon correspondence for its purchase. When Mr. Bancroft was appointed to Berlin last spring, he was also requested to go by the way of Madrid, and in connection with Minister Hale to enter on the negotiations for the purchase of the Island. The Spanish Government, after holding the matter under advisement for some time, has decided not to entertain a proposition for the sale of the Island. The efforts of the Government to secure a naval station from the Republic of St. Domingo have also failed, and therefore precludes the purchase at all of any site for a naval station in the West Indies.

Colonel Bigelow Ill.

A three-quarters eclipse of the moon was observed here to-night with fine effect. The National Observatory took elaborate observations. It was plainly visible to the naked eye.

Presidential Interviews.

Senator Buckalew, of Pennsylvania, and Collector Smythe, of New York, have had long interviews to-day with the President.

General Hancock

Is expected to arrive here to-morrow evening, en route for New Orleans, to assume command of the Fifth Military District. He will have an interview with the President and Gen. Grant before leaving the city.

The Maryland Election.

There are rumors of difficulty in Maryland at the coming constitutional election, in consequence of the efforts being made by a certain class of politicians to induce colored men to insist on the right to vote, but the best information received here indicates a peaceable election.

The Pardon Bureau.

The functions of the pardon Bureau of the Attorney General's office in relation to the rebellion have been virtually suspended by the amnesty proclamation. The clerical force devoted to that branch of the business is now preparing the statistical reports of the States of Georgia, Mississippi and Alabama, for the approaching session of Congress. Upwards of 15,000 applications for pardon have been lodged in the Attorney General's office, most of them embracing persons to whose petition no special signification attaches, have been granted. Some five hundred have been enacted upon. Most of the prominent men of the South have made application. Henry A. Wise, Lodi Wigfall and Jefferson Davis are notable exceptions, though the pardon of the latter has been sought by the Legislatures of Mississippi and Georgia, and innumerable petitions. No action has ever been taken on any application made by absentees like Messrs. Slidell and Breckinridge, though the latter has not himself sought pardon, but his friends for him.

Stanbery Arrived.

Attorney General Stanbery arrived in town last evening from his recent visit to Canton Springs, with his health much improved. He called on the President this morning and had an interview prior to the meeting of the Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, September 13, 1867.

CANDIDATES FOR NAVAL ACADEMY.

A Board of Naval Medical Officers convene at Annapolis on the 20th inst., to examine candidates for admission to the Naval Academy.

CUSTOMS.

The receipts of customs from September 9d to the 7th inclusive, were $2,616,016.

MONEY IN THE TREASURY.

Coin in the Treasury to-day, $89,967,000; including certificates $14,675,000. Currency in the Treasury, $13,750,000; total, $103,717,000.

REGISTRATION.

It is now definitely settled by the executive authority to suggest to the several district military commanders the extension of time until the first of October for correction of and admission to registry of those who may produce proofs of legal qualifications, and fix as the time for elections the first Monday in November, in order to secure uniformity in all the States. Such an order will be issued on the subject, as the reconstruction acts give the district commanders discretionary powers, but they will promptly be informed of the recommendation or suggestion in official form.

FITZ JOHN PORTER'S CASE.

The petition of Fitz John Porter and accompanying papers for re-opening the case, have been placed in the hands of General Grant by the President. There seems no doubt Porter's application will be granted and a new trial ordered.

PROCLAMATION ISSUED.

The recent Executive proclamation enjoining strict observance of constitutional requirements was to-day issued from the War Department for the information of all concerned.

ST. LOUIS.

Adjournment of the Pomological Convention---McCoole Challenges Joe Coburn---Violation of Revenue Laws.

ST. LOUIS, September 13.—The Pomological Convention adjourned to-day, after a very interesting session. It will re-assemble in two years hence in Philadelphia. The display of standard fruits consisted of six hundred and eight dishes of grapes, eight hundred and two dishes of apples, seven hundred and forty-five dishes of pears, and two hundred and twelve dishes of peaches. The President stated that the quantity and quality of the fruits excelled the most sanguine expectations of the society, and that the exhibition exceeded anything in that line the world ever saw. The fruit was sold at auction this afternoon to assist in defraying the expenses of the society, and some of it brought high prices. A portion of the society will visit the vineyards at Hermann and Hamilton, Missouri, to-morrow.

Mike McCoole has authorized John Franklin, the backer of Aaron Jones, to make a match for him with Joe Coburn for ten thousand dollars. McCoole has sent a deposit of one thousand dollars to New York, and next week's Clipper will contain his challenge.

Lubringer and Vanbeck, two brewers of this city, were held in five thousand dollars bonds to-day for violating the revenue law.

CHICAGO.

Arrest of Matthews, the Forger.

CHICAGO, September 13.—Matthews, alias Depressor, alias Livingstone, who obtained seventy-five thousand dollars from the Bank of Moses Taylor & Co., New York, in July last, by forging the name of Cornelius Vanderbilt, was arrested on Wednesday, near Blackberry Station, Dane county, by detectives Elver, of New York, and Ellis, of Chicago. About ten thousand dollars of the money was recovered, the balance having been expended in the purchase of farms, horses and stock.

Trotting Race at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, September 13.—The trot to-day between Butler, Silas Rich and Fearless was won by Butler. Best time 2:27.

ELECTION PROCLAMATIOT ISSUED.

Speech of General Escobedo.

GALVESTON, September 13.—Matamoras advices state that a proclamation has been promulgated, ordering an election for deputies to Congress and for President of the Supreme Court on the 22d of September. The district elections were to take place the 6th, 7th and 8th inst. Congress meets on the 20th of November, and the President takes his seat on the 1st of December, and the Chief Justice on the 1st of June.

The brigand troops of Canales have surrendered themselves to the authorities at Linarez. General Berizabal has resigned the Governorship of Tamaulipas, and General Pavan has been appointed instead.

General Escobedo reached Monterey with 2,000 troops on the 28th. There was great rejoicing thereat. In a speech he said that the name of American would always be dear to him. He denied the reports that he had insulted Americans at Queretaro, and acknowledged his indebtedness to the United States for his success.

General Diaz retires to private life. Juan Jose Baz, Governor of the Capital, declares death to all robbers.

RICHMOND.

Death of John Caski---No Order for State Election---Revenue From Tobacco.

RICHMOND, September 13.—John Caski, President of the Tobacco Exchange, died to-day.

General Schofield's order for the State election is delayed in view of the Washington telegram relative to a simultaneous election on the first Monday of November.

The revenue tax collected on tobacco in this district for August amounts to over half a million. The amount of tobacco was a million and a quarter pounds.

BUFFALO.

The Good Fellows---Man Drowned---Fire.

BUFFALO, September 13.—The National Convention of the Order of Good Fellows closed to-day. Washington was selected for the next annual convention. Officers were elected for the ensuing year.

A scow containing twenty-five laborers was capsized in a canal boat this afternoon. One man was drowned.

A fire this afternoon in the cellar under Holman's drug store destroyed a large amount of naphta. Loss not ascertained.

The Daily Commercial

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1867.

THE COMMERCIAL is the largest daily paper in the State, and gives daily one-fourth more reading than any other paper in Pittsburgh. It is the only Pittsburgh paper that uses the telegraph liberally, gives full market reports, and all the news of the day.

OUR CANDIDATE.

Hon. Henry W. Williams.

[From the Pittsburgh Post, June 28.]

WORTHY CANDIDATES.

"The nomination of Henry W. Williams as a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, is a good one. He was the best man named before the Republican Convention, and possesses legal and moral qualifications for the responsible position to which he has been nominated. Both parties have now presented their candidates. An important duty has been faithfully discharged by the respective conventions. The campaign may now be conducted without personal aspersions, and decided upon the principles of the two great parties. This is as it should be."

[From the Pittsburgh Post, August 28.]

If the notice of Judge Williams's nomination which appeared in the "Post" at the time, and now kept standing at the head of the Republican papers, is intended as a rebuke for any supposed inconsistency since, it falls in its purpose. We have nothing to take back or modify. Of Judge Williams's private or legal reputation we have nothing but words of praise, and however it may suit some pugnacious and heady politicians, we cannot bring ourselves to view personal assaults as either wise or politic. The Democracy plants itself upon principle and deals with facts, and discusses the public and official acts of candidates.

THE World goes to great length to disclaim for the Democratic party any responsibility for the President or his ways. It says: "MR. JOHNSON is your President, Messrs. Republican, not ours;" the truth of which assertion, judged by present affiliations, is not apparent. It repudiates "the odium" attaching to his administration, and gives notice that the party will not be saddled with the consequences of any of the acts of the wretched man. "A man might as wisely think to improve his social standing by living with somebody's refuted wife," says the World, "as for the Democratic party to expect any advantage from adopting in the last days of his administration" ANDREW JOHNSON!

GEN. GRANT disclaims any desire to be President. Herein is the proof of the quality which will make him strong with the people. He has no wish to make politics a pursuit. This will increase his strength. He is satisfied with the honors that have been conferred on him. In this how like the patriot the nation needs and is searching for to place at the head of affairs. No one will accuse GEN. GRANT in expressing himself in this way of meaning to make a bid for the Presidency; but were he ever so artful he could could not have spoken so as to secure the confidence and support of the people more completely than in the conversation reported by the New York Post. We regard GEN. GRANT, in spite of himself, more a candidate now than ever before.

IT is almost wonderful to see how elated the Democrats are over the few crumbs they have picked up from California and Maine. In the former they have succeeded purely through a clean split of the Republican party—a cause that has already disappeared. In the latter the majority against them is ten or fifteen thousand, and they rejoice because it is not twenty-five thousand. In rejoicing over results secured through the division or apathy of the Republicans, the Democrats betray the poverty of their expectations and manifest anything but good sense, for their rejoicing will serve to awaken Republicans to the necessity of being active. A happy effect will be thus produced in dispelling the apathy into which the Republicans in other States may have fallen. Let the Democrats rejoice, but the Republicans will be warned. Fellow-laborers in the good cause! Let us show that we accept the warning and are determined to profit by it. In California our party was divided. Here we are united. In Maine it was apathetic. Let us shake off our apathy, and henceforth, to the day of election, devote ourselves to the work which insures victory.

ALTHOUGH assurances are plenty that the President does not arrogate to himself the power to enfranchise the rebels, and that such is not the intent of the Proclamation, yet there are many reasons for suspecting that he now—as on former occasion—is but masking. There is manifested that degree of anxiety to have it understood that he is not, which usually belongs to an ulterior purpose. Independent of this, the reason for suspecting Mr. JOHNSON's real purpose is the removal of all the disabilities resting on the rebels are all but convincing. Not a few of his backers so understand him, the Cincinnati Enquirer among the rest. The correspondent of that paper, writing from Washington, rejects the idea that the immediate and perfect enfranchisement of all but the excepted classes is not the object of the Proclamation. The writer, after giving at length his interpretation of the Proclamation, goes on as follows:

"Such, I am satisfied, is the true intent and meaning of the President; and if it be, he has assumed that the President will carry it out. A change, a little smooth, seems to have wrought a change in Andrew Johnson. He no longer hesitates to exercise the executive powers with which he is clothed by the constitution. His recent proclamation, declaring the supremacy of the civil over the military power, and the paramount authority of the Constitution, and his present proclamation restoring the citizens of the Southern States to their rights, are but the legitimate outcome of a new line of conduct upon which he has entered.

"In a few days we shall have more developments of the President's new policy. A Democratic Secretary of State; a Democratic Secretary of War; a Democratic Secretary of the Navy; a Democratic Postmaster General; and these four all eminent statesmen—what would the country say to four?"

TO BUSINESS MEN.

MR. JOHNSON is impressing himself on the minds and affairs of the people. The growing alarm and apprehension in financial circles and the gradual rise in the price of gold prove it. Business is feeling the influence of his revolutionary course. Doubt and instability have come over the face of things, and there is a growing feeling that so long as ANDREW JOHNSON occupies the White House business will be unsettled and reconstruction impeded. Under the present state of the case it is the solemn duty of the people to stand out in solid column against the President. Let Pennsylvania be lost to the Republicans, and he would be encouraged to go to almost any extreme. Our securities would depreciate—gold would go up—everything would become unsettled—and in less than twenty days the country would be precipitated into a crisis, the like of which we have not seen since the days immediately preceding the battle of Gettysburg. Business men, therefore, have a duty to perform. This has come to be their canvass—not the politician's. The stake is theirs—not of the Republican party as such. We ask them to reflect on the situation, and determine at once on their course.

THE LAW OF LIBEL.

The attention of that portion of the public at all interested in the rights, the privileges, and the duties of the public press, must have been attracted to the proceedings in the Court of Quarter Sessions, during the past week, in the trial of what are popularly known as the O'NEILL-O'NEILL libel suits. We think these trials demonstrate the necessity of a radical and immediate change in the law of libel in this State, if the law was correctly expounded by Judge STOWE, and we see no reason to doubt His Honor's interpretation of the statute.

Take the case of Mr. PITTOCK, of the Leader, for instance. He was indicted, jointly with another party, for the publication of an alleged libel on Mr. DANIEL O'NEILL of the Dispatch. The matter published by Mr. PITTOCK was the subject of general newspaper and street commentary. It was picked up as part of the current news of the day; as much so as nine-tenths of what appears daily in the local columns of the city papers. Yet this is held by the courts to be libellous, and the defense shut out from every opportunity of proving that the publication was justifiable, and that it was not made from any malicious intent towards the prosecutor, O'NEILL. Under such legal restrictions, the press is powerless, and the dishonest official or scoundrel, by office seeker may escape from all censure or exposure by these letters that the law places upon the journalist. The specific offense of which Mr. PITTOCK has been convicted, involves no moral guilt, but merely a technical violation of a statute letter suited to the reign of the STUARTS in England than to the free people of Pennsylvania.

We submit that this law should be amended in accordance with the spirit of the age, by the next Legislature. With all means of defense cut off, as they are under the existing statute, any newspaper may be bankrupted by fines, or silenced by the imprisonment of its editors, by a combination of individuals whose acts, official or otherwise, render them amenable to just censure. It is the duty of the press to protect and defend the public interests, and in no manner is this duty so effectually discharged as in the exposure of wrong doers, technically guilty of no crime, but morally deserving the lash of general opinion.

The Planetelles, the Solar System in Miniature and in Motion—A Beautiful Piece of Mechanism—A Pittsburgh Invention.

We take great pleasure in introducing to the readers of the COMMERCIAL and to the community at large, a most astonishing piece of mechanism, invented, constructed and rendered complete in Pittsburgh, and by Pittsburgh genius. It is designed to remove, by ocular demonstration, one of the principal difficulties in understanding the astronomy of our own solar system, and to render the acquisition of the science easy and permanent. This it does more perfectly than any Orrery or planetarium that we have ever seen, and we have seen one, at least, of the best. It will, therefore, be of essential service in schools, of every degree, in which the grand science is taught.

To an adept in astronomy, it would be sufficient to say that it is a complete miniature of the solar system. For the general reader we add that it represents by globes or balls of proper relative sizes the sun, the primary planets and all their known satellites including, of course, one moon. Thirty bodies in the distant sky are here represented clearly to the eye by the instrument. But a more surprising thing is their motions. When the machine is set a going every one of these bodies moves, showing the axillary and the orbital movements of the heavenly bodies themselves and the periodical turns of both. The motions represented are over eighty in number. Consequent on this motion they, of course, exhibit the succession of day and night, the sun's rising and setting, the inclination of the axis of each planet to the plane of its orbit, the changes of the seasons and the varying length of the days and the seasons.

By these motions, is shown also the conjunctions and oppositions of the heavenly bodies by which eclipses of the sun and of the moon are produced, and also the changing, fulling and phases of the moon and other satellites, as well as the length of the lunar days and nights. It is no exaggeration to say that the mechanism exhibits all these astronomical phenomena and more, with such clearness and precision, as to make them intelligible to the children in our schools. For this purpose it has been invented—for real, every day use, not merely for curiosity. Children will learn more of astronomy, by a few days study accompanied by this instrument, than by months with only a book and the usual illustrations.

In contemplating this machine in motion—and it requires less force to move it than to wind up a mantel clock—one gets a clear impression of the grand movements of the celestial globes themselves—the inferior planets rapidly wheeling around the glorious center orb, while the superior, even to Uranus and Neptune consuming their slow, majestic way around the same luminous center, while the lively attendants of each are industriously speeding their courses around their primaries, reflecting on them the light of the supreme luminary of all. The power of the human mind and the reach of its curiosity and its knowledge are well illustrated and well employed, in constructing a mechanism, that so beautifully represents, though at an infinite distance, the wonderful work of the great divine architect of the heavens themselves.

The inventor of this remarkable piece of mechanism, the Rev. John Davis, has made astronomy his study for many years, and with special reference to the construction of a mechanical contrivance for exhibiting the motions, comparative sizes, and distances of the heavenly bodies. For many months past, in conjunction with Mr. Woods, of our city, he has been employed on this particular machine. It is designed, while constructing similar instruments for the larger public institutions, to prepare others on precisely the same plan, only of less extensive compass, for Academies and High Schools, and a still smaller, but equally perfect, one for use in the public schools of city and country. Their introduction we should regard as a great benefit to the educational interest.

Mr. Davis, we may add, is about publishing, also, two works, for schools and general reading, on the subject of Astronomy. The peculiarity of these books, we understand to be, the simplicity and clearness with which the subject is presented.

The Planetelles is the name given to this instrument, to signify its exhibition of the planets and the satellites.

THE exports of merchandise from the port of New York since the 1st of January, 1867, as returned by the Custom House, amount in value to $126,767,997, against $137,168,392 last year, and $108,171,220 in 1865. More than half of the total amount of exports has been taken by Great Britain; next in rank comes Germany, France, southern Europe (except Spain), the West Indies and Cuba. The extent of commerce between New York and the latter is particularly interesting at present on account of the completion of the telegraph line from Florida to Havana, with which connecting lines to the other West Indies will probably soon be laid.

THE Alexandria Gazette says: "The report published in the newspapers that General Robert E. Lee passed through Washington a day or two since, on his way North, is totally without foundation. The General left Virginia Springs on Friday last for Lexington." Consequently he could not, as the Washington dispatches further said he did, have made a call, with Gen. Joe Johnston, on Gen. Grant. How delightful to have these little personal paragraphs set afloat, they are such interesting specimens of inventive genius.

A SILLY circular denouncing Gen. Grant and proposing Speaker Colfax for President, has been quite extensively circulated of late. The last named gentleman has caused it to be made known through the South Bend (Indiana) Register, that it has not his indorsement or approval. It could have proceeded from no friend of either of them.

SEVERAL ingenious stories are afloat designed to create the belief that J. Wilkes Booth is "alive and kicking." It is rumored that in view of their plausibility and possibly their truth, Mr. Johnson contemplates issuing a supplementary proclamation extending amnesty to the unfortunate individual.

THE Springfield Republican, on the day prior to the International Regatta there, in view of what happened at Newburg, appealed for fairness and a strict observance of all the rules of rowing and gentlemanly conduct. It seems the appeal was not in vain. But Walter Brown was not in the race.

IN explanation of the change by the Columbus (Ohio) Statesman in favor of impartial suffrage, it is said to have been a trick—for one day only. Some men cannot be even tricked into supporting good principles.

THE Boston Traveller advises consumers to purchase flour sparingly and to be in no hurry, because before long prices must recede. It says: There is now a grand ring forming to keep breadstuffs up to famine prices. This ring has its branches in Chicago, Buffalo and New York, and its leading members are said to be men of great wealth with heavy bank facilities. It is well known that millions of bushels of wheat have already changed hands in Chicago, Buffalo and New York, without a bushel being moved. Like gold gamblers, many parties are buying and selling breadstuffs who have not a bushel of wheat or a barrel of flour in their possession. They bull and bear the market, buy and sell on time, and pay the difference. These speculators are simply tools of the ring, used to keep the market excited and prices buoyant.

THE New York Times is responsible for the following: "Very many divorce suits are conducted in a manner so exceedingly confidential, that one of the parties most interested is not informed of the proceedings at all, until astounded by the presentation of the decree. We were cognizant of a case, wherein an estimable lady, innocent of all wrong, and ignorant even of any dissatisfaction on the part of her husband, parted with him affectionately at the steamboat dock as she started on a journey to see some friends; some hours after, in the privacy of her state room, she found leisure to examine a paper her husband had handed her at the last minute, and discovered it to be a copy of a decree of divorce rendered by an Illinois Judge. Before the steamboat had been six hours gone her late husband had married another woman."

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

A Geneva letter says:—"In Switzerland, where the American plan of cars has been adopted in many cases, one sees nothing but American families, with their guides, their sharp poles for climping the mountains. There is the inevitable father with scraggy, grayboard, the mamma with discontented face, the impressible son, with the Paris cut of hair; the two daughters who sleep invariably through all the beautiful scenery."

The 17th of this month will be the anniversary of the adoption of the American Constitution in 1787; the promulgation of Washington's farewell address in 1789, and the battle of Antietam in 1862.

A conductor in the service of the Manchester Carriage Company, England, was arrested for putting twenty-two persons on a carriage where the number of seats was but eighteen. The conductor, although he plead that the agricultural show caused a great demand for transportation, was fined ten dollars for "overloading" the carriage.

The British income tax for the last fiscal year of that country, was paid on incomes amounting to $574,254,795 by 347,110 persons. During the preceding year 322,461 persons paid income tax on $527,178,905. During the last fiscal year there were in England 65,103 persons who had incomes under $500, and 133 who had incomes over $250,000 each.

It is estimated, by persons well informed, that between two and three million barrels of whisky, in the bonded warehouses throughout the country, will be released from the embargo placed upon its transportation from one bonded warehouse to another, by the regulations of the Treasury Department which have just been rescinded, and which will permit this immense accumulation to be sent forward principally from Western to Eastern markets. In one collection district of Ohio alone, upwards of ninety thousand barrels have accumulated while the restriction lasted.

PERSONAL.

—Mr. Greeley appears in a card saying that he had had "nothing to do with the appointment of Collecott—nothing on earth." Years ago he assisted to procure him an appointment to some office or other, but he knows nothing as to how he got his present one.

—The latest Dickens item is that the novelist is in a state of health the delicacy of which is characterized as critical. The public is permitted to determine for itself the bearing of the hygienic fact on the contemplated visit of the novelist. Robust vigor is the condition of successful performances, such as the proposed readings. The trip may, therefore, be abandoned.

—Belle Boyd, of Virginia, made her first appearance at DeBar's Opera House, St. Louis, on the evening of the 2d inst., in the character of Pauline, in the "Lady of Lyons." There was a good attendance, but the audience was not favorably impressed.

—In the Cleveland Spiritual Convention last week, Lester Day, of Buffalo, presented a bill of $300, the balance remaining on an account of $543 50, which had been advanced to keep Colchester out of jail in Buffalo. He claimed the spiritualists had promised to pay it. The claim was ignored.

—In a recent conversation M. Romero, the Mexican Minister at Washington, expressed himself freely concerning recent results connected with his country. He laid the blame of the invasion of Mexico on the Church party and Napoleon; said he thought Maximilian to have been good-natured and amiable, but weak-minded, and that he went to Mexico more to gratify his wife's ambition than his own; that he would have left Mexico with the French but for the advice of M. Eloi, a Belgian envoy, who told him he would lose his prestige and his chance of success if he did. Maximilian's body would be delivered to Austria, if it were requested, without threats. Santa Anna would not be executed; he was hardly worth hanging, and besides was too old to be thus disposed of. Juarez would probably imprison him until death. In answer to various other questions, his Excellency said that the elections for President and Congress would be held in November next, when Juarez, who was the only candidate for the Presidency, would be elected. He will undoubtedly devote himself to restoring internal peace, and to the development of the boundless resources of the country. Foreigners would be favorably regarded by the government, and he allowed free intercourse. M. Romero will leave for Mexico in about two weeks, and the present Secretary of the Mexican Legation at Washington, Mr. Marisell, will fill his place pro tem.

WESTERN NEWS.

Three breweries and several dwelling houses were destroyed by fire in Chicago Monday morning, on Reuben street, west side, and on Chicago avenue, north side. Total loss about $80,000. The principal sufferers are S. G. Hanson, Chas. Woelffner and R. Claflin.

General Dodge and party left Salt Lake on the 2d, to inspect the surveyed route of the Union Pacific Railroad, from Bridger down Beaver Creek to Salt Springs, and the route north of Bridger to Green River. The party has two companies of soldiers for an escort.

General Sherman, with the Indian Commissioners, have arrived at Omaha. No treaty was made with the Santees. They were simply advised to examine the land on which the Government expects them to settle. The Commissioners leave here to-morrow for Fort Laramie, where it is expected they will meet delegations of Indians from Powder river.

In Newcastle, Henry county, Kentucky, last Thursday, a negro girl employed in the family of William Graves, having been offended by his wife, took their three-year-old child to a field and beat out its brains with a stone. She concealed the body in some undergrowth near by, where, after some hours' search, it was found by the family. The girl was arrested, tried next day and convicted. She will doubtless be hanged.

Illinois produces one-fifth of the whole crop of Indian corn in the United States. It is also the largest producer of oats, and grows 20 per cent. of the hay. Pennsylvania takes the lead in the production of rye—nearly one-third of the product of the whole country, and in buckwheat over 42 per cent. New Jersey produces more rye than any other State, according to population. New York takes the lead in the production of barley, about 40 per cent. of the whole country. Virginia is ahead in tobacco, about 50 per cent. Illinois alone has in corn about 5,660,000 acres, in wheat 2,196,000 acres, in rye 345,000 acres, in oats 885,000 acres, in barley 41,000.

E. F. Barton, who, under the name of A. Burns, swindled the First National Bank of Madison, Wis., out of $7,000 some time ago, has been taken thither from Tuscola, Ill., and lodged in jail. He admits his guilt, and waives an examination. F. C. Mather, of Iowa, a suspected accomplice, was arrested at Madison on Tuesday, and held in default of $6,000 bail.

A duel took place in the "Shades," near Connersville, Indiana, on the 12th inst., between the Hon. J. W. Carmichael, formerly of the upper House of the Legislature, in that State, and James W. Mayo, a lawyer in Indianapolis. A pair of duelling pistols once used by the Hon. Thomas F. Marshall, of Kentucky, were the weapons used. Two rounds were fired: the first round resulted in a flesh wound to Carmichael. In the second round Mayo received the discharge in the region of his heart, and was taken from the ground by his friends and a surgeon. The affair originated from the fact that Carmichael had accused Mayo with cheating at the gaming table.

There was a large meeting of miners held near Helena on the 5d of August, at which resolutions were adopted, with a view of attracting the attention of Eastern capitalists to Montana, and inviting them to come there with means to work in the quartz mining regions.

NOTICE—UNITED STATES OF AMERICA. WESTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Whereas, a Libel has been filed in the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Pennsylvania, on the 6th day of September, 1867, by the United States District Attorney, against 40 Barrels of Spirits, containing 857 81-100 gallons, seized and late in the possession of JOHN CARR, and now in the custody of the Collector of the 24th District of Pennsylvania. Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said libel, and the praecipe of the said Court, to me directed, I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said twenty barrels of Spirits, or in any manner interested therein, that they be and appear before the said District Court, to be held at Pittsburgh, on the TWENTY-FIRST DAY OF SEPTEMBER, A. D. 1867, at 11 o'clock, A. M., there to interpose their claims and to make their allegations in that behalf.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

A few avaricious and unprincipled Flour Dealers in and around Pittsburgh, are now purchasing second-hand sacks, with our brand upon them, filling them with an inferior quality, and selling it as our Flour. Finding it difficult to procure the quantity of second-hand sacks, they are trying to get the sack maker here to make and print a lot for them.

To prevent this fraud, we are now pasting our sacks, and sealing them with a printed label, with name of firm and date of manufacture.

As we have been selling our Flour made each day, and the kind of Wheat ground, we are at all times enabled to know the quality of our Flour made.

Look Out for Short Weights.

Some of the dealers who are filling the sacks, are putting up short weights, in some cases equal to twenty pounds per barrel, making fully one dollar per barrel loss to consumer.

A REWARD OF $50

Will be paid for information that will lead to the detection and conviction of any person engaged in the fraudulent business.

RAILWAY MATTERS

CONSOLIDATED LINE BETWEEN PITTSBURGH AND KEOKUK.

It is announced that all the railroads between Pittsburgh and Keokuk, via Steubenville, Columbus, Piqua, Logansport and Peoria, are to be consolidated after the 1st of January, 1868, under the name of the Pittsburgh, Indiana and Mississippi Railroad, forming a continuous line of six hundred and seventy-three miles. The link between Logansport and Union City, Ind., will be completed December 1st.

THE FARMERS' RAILROAD COMBINATION.

The Warren and Franklin Railway having effected an arrangement with the Farmers' Railroad by which they become lessees of the same, took possession on Monday last. The running of the Farmers' in connection with the Warren and Franklin railroad, under the new arrangement, necessitated a few changes, and the office of Superintendent of the Farmers' railroad being dispensed with, Mr. R. G. Taylor, who has so worthily filled that position, retires.

SALE OF A RAILROAD.

The "Springfield, Mt. Vernon and Pittsburgh Railroad" has been sold for $1,200. A large amount of work had been done on the road, in the way of grading, culverts, &c., when operations were suspended some years since.

STATE TAX ON RAILROADS.

The Wheeling Intelligencer favors the taxing of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, which is now exempt by the terms of its charter, which provides that the company must derive a revenue of six per cent. from its property before it becomes liable to taxation. In referring to this matter, the editor says: "The Cleveland and Pittsburgh railroad pays to the State of Ohio a yearly aggregate of sixty thousand dollars in the way of State, county, township and corporation taxes. There are about two hundred miles of track in the State, and the assessment is at the rate of three mills on the dollar. The company makes no return to the Clerk, and the counties predicate their respective assessments on that return, and so also do the townships and corporations."

THE MONONGAHELA VALLEY ROAD.

In referring to the projected Monongahela Valley Railroad, the Fairmont (West Va.) Vedette says: "We look upon this project with a great deal of interest; because, if that road is built, the construction of a connecting link between its river terminus and the Baltimore and Ohio at this place, is not merely probable, but absolutely certain. The immense advantages to Marion and Monongahela counties of railroad communication with Pittsburgh would be so very apparent as to insure the money to build the short line necessary to make the connection. The down-river people appear to be in earnest in the matter, and we think there is no doubt but the road will be commenced next spring. Meanwhile the slackwater extension project will remain quiescent."

TRANSFER OF THE ALTON ROAD.

A meeting of railroad men took place at Terre Haute on Monday, to consummate the transfer of the St. Louis, Alton and Terre Haute Road to the Eastern consolidation. The transfer was effected to the Bellefontaine Road, and another road will be built between Indianapolis and Terre Haute, unless the present line can be purchased. Gen. Thomas Morris was elected President, and other officers appointed pro tempore. The monopoly is bound to have a through line between New York and St. Louis. The passenger receipts of the Bellefontaine Road for August were $87,397.

RAILWAY CONSOLIDATION.

The articles of consolidation made on the 28th of June between the Columbus and Indianapolis Central Railway Company, the Union and Logansport Railroad Company, and the Toledo, Logansport and Burlington Railway Company, were filed with the Secretary of State of Ohio, on Tuesday, September 10th. The consolidated Company is to be known as the Columbus and Indianapolis Central Railway Company, and the Directors shall consist of eleven members, three of whom shall reside in the State of New York, three in Pennsylvania, four in Ohio, and two in Indiana. The capital stock is nine millions of dollars, to be divided into shares of fifty dollars each. The stockholders of the Union and Logansport Railroad Company shall be entitled to $100 of the stock of the Columbus and Indiana Central Railway Company for each $100 of stock held by them in the said Union and Logansport Railroad Company. The preferred stockholders of the Toledo, Logansport and Burlington Railway Company shall each be entitled to $135, and stock holders not preferred $50 in the new company for each $100 in the Toledo, Logansport and Burlington Railway Company. The stockholders of the Columbus and Indianapolis Central Railway Company shall each be entitled to $100 stock in the consolidated company for each $100 in the C. and I. C. Railway Company, and in addition shall be entitled to an increase of fifty per cent., either in the form of income bonds or stock. The articles of consolidation were signed by the Directors of the respective companies.

The stockholders of the above Company met at their office in Columbus, on Wednesday, and elected the following Directors for said road, to wit: W. D. Thompson, Joseph Tuckerman, and John L. Seeley, of New York; Jos. L. Thomas and S. M. Wolfe, of Pennsylvania; B. E. Smith, John R. Hilliard, Wm. Dennison, and John Gardiner, of Ohio, and John S. Newman and J. Converse, of Indiana. The Directors organized by the election of Benjamin E. Smith President, Gordon Moodie Secretary, James Alexander Treasurer, and James M. Lunt Superintendent.

CHESAPEAKE AND LAKE ERIE RAILROAD.

The Fulton Republican in referring to this project says it is one in which the citizens of that place are deeply interested. It continues: For some time past the question of a railroad from Washington City to Lake Erie has been agitated and is now assuming tangible shape, and is worthy the attention of the citizens of this county. The route for this road has been examined from Washington as far as Williamsport on the Potomac, and has been found entirely practicable. From Williamsport it will follow the Potomac to the mouth of Licking creek, thence up Licking creek by the shortest and best route to Mt. Union on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, and thence to Lake Erie. One of the objects of the road is the Broad Top coal fields, and if anthracite could be developed at New Grenada in sufficient quantities to justify working, so much better; but this road is not made contingent on this—the great object of this enterprise lies beyond. From present indications, Mt. Union is a point, but examinations and surveys may modify this, though the feasibility of a road through this valley and on to Mt. Union will, in all probability, make that the favored place.

HOW LONG!

How long will sufferers from Chronic Diseases fail to avail themselves of the extraordinary virtues of

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS.

Until this most excellent medicine has been tried all has not been done that could be.

Bark ? ye sufferers from the scourge of the present generation, Dyspepsia, have you sought relief in

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS.

No we know you have not, or you would not look so woe-begone and miserable.

How long, oh ye Head-ache sufferers from the horrors of Scrofula will ye fail to make use of

MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS.

An almost infallible remedy for this disease in any of its horrible forms. The sick and the afflicted are guilty of self-murder so long as they do not use

CITY MATTERS.

Arrival of Jimmy Hamill.

Jimmy Hamill, the champion oarsman, arrived in the city yesterday, and received a very warm congratulations of numerous friends. He has been living "on the fat of the land" since the day of his race, and has gained considerable flesh since he left Pittsburgh with Walter Brown. Though defeated in the contest, he has the satisfaction of knowing that, ye who are emaciated and dyspeptic. He looks as fat and sleek as a prize hog, and, severe as was the training must have been, it was doubtless worth the while, as it has had a good purpose than to create endurance, if it has increased the powers of digestion which he now possesses.

In regard to the proposed race with Mc-Kenzie, in which he had pledged his money, in which he found it impossible to get the right kind of a boat to practice in, and only at the hour he landed at Pittsburgh to train out a few minutes at a time. Then the boat he rowed in was not the one he found to be entirely different from any he ever had been using, being much heavier and about 4 inches wider. Rowing in such a boat would be likely to stake considerable muscle on the result, and not caring particularly about being defeated, he concluded to end the matter by paying the forfeit.

Republican Meeting in Birmingham.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Republican voters of the borough of Birmingham was held last evening, in the diamond square. At 8 o'clock the gathering was called to order by seven o'clock the gathering was called to order by Mr. D. Cameron, upon whose motion S. A Barr, Esq., was chosen President, and Messrs. George Powell, Geo. E. Sloonm, E. Croan, J. P. Peoples and Stephen Strunz appointed Secretaries. The newspaper reporters of the press were designated as Secretaries.

The Chairman, in a few well chosen remarks, stated the objects of the meeting, and concluded by introducing B. F. Lucas, Esq., who met with a warm reception. Mr. Lucas commenced his address by calling attention to the great National question that must soon be solved—the principle of equality in the Constitution that all men are created equal. To sustain this principle it was necessary to sustain the Republican party, a party that had always advocated it, and placed it upon its banner. The party had always achieved to reduce the free labor of the North to the condition of the slave labor of the South, and spared no mighty effort when it was in power to succeed in their object. Judge Sharswood, the Democratic candidate for the Supreme Bench, had, by his official decisions, shown a sympathy for the rebels of the South, and had his recommendations been carried out, the industry of the country would have been crippled, and the value of prop rty destroyed. Judge Williams, the candidate of the Republican party, on the other hand, presented a bright and glorious record. He had been for many years a resident of this neighborhood, and his character was well known throughout the community. He had always given his influence towards crippling the rebellion, and he would receive his reward on the second Tuesday of October, when the loyal masses of the State would, by their votes, elevate him to the Supreme Bench. President Johnson's treachery was next alluded to, and the Amnesty Proclamation discussed at considerable length. Mr. Lucas spoke for about an hour, and his remarks were well received.

W. C. Moreland, Esq., followed with a short but forcible speech, in which he called upon the Irishmen to rally around the Republican party, which had always been the friend of free labor.

H. H. McCormack, Esq., was the last speaker, and confined his remarks principally to the issues to be derived from a protective tariff. The meeting adjourned about nine o'clock, and the audience dispersed.

A brass band was in attendance, and discoursed a number of excellent airs during the evening.

MEETING POSTPONED.

A mass meeting of Republican voters was called for last evening, at the Ninth Ward School House. An hour appointed—half-past seven o'clock—a large crowd was in attendance. The meeting was to have been held in front of the School House in the open air, but when the hour arrived there was every indication of a very heavy shower of rain, and as a majority of the speakers had failed to put in their appearance, it was decided to postpone the meeting until Friday evening next, at half past seven o'clock, at the same place. The crowd then dispersed.

Criminal Court Proceedings.

Court met at ten o'clock Friday morning, Judge Stowe presiding.

VERDICT IN THE LIBEL CASE.

The jury in the case of John M. Pitcock and James B. O'Neill, charged with libel on information of Daniel O'Neill, came into Court and rendered a verdict, finding J. B. O'Neill not guilty, and John W. Pittock guilty, and that the prosecutor, Daniel O'Neill, pay the costs.

Judge Stowe informed the jury that, in case of conviction, the costs would have to follow the verdict, the jury having no control over them. That part of the verdict referring to the costs was then stricken out.

The attempt of the jury to have the costs placed upon the prosecutor is rather suggestive, and indicates what they might have done had they not been held so strictly to the law, as laid down by the Court.

LARCENIES.

Annie O'Brien was arraigned on a charge of having stolen articles of clothing from Mrs. Boltthoover, of Baldwin township. The jury found a verdict of guilty and recommended her to the mercy of the Court. She was sentenced to pay a fine of six-and-a-fourth cents and costs, and undergo ten days imprisonment in the county jail. This simple-minded woman, on hearing the sentence, offered to pay the fine, telling the Judge that she had ten cents. The bystanders had a hearty laugh at her simplicity, and Judge found it impossible to keep his face straight.

William Moore was charged with the larceny of a pair of pants valued at ten dollars, the property of Daniel L. Kerr, mate of the steamer J. S. Neal. It appeared that the accused had stolen the pantaloons, and in attempting to escape with them, was compelled to jump overboard and was almost drowned. The jury found a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to mercy. Sentenced to thirty days in the county jail.

PETITION TO HAVE LICENSE REVOKED.

Owen Gallagher keeps a drinking saloon at No. 178 Webster street, in the Sixth ward. He has an ating house, beer se, and of course has legal authority for selling. Under the late license law the Court has power to revoke the license of parties under certain circumstances. Among the causes which justify a revocation, is, allowing the premises to become the resort of idle and disorderly persons to the an oyance of the neighborhood. A petition signed by a number of Mr. Gallagher's nearest neighbors, was presented to the Court, setting forth that his house became a nuisance to the neighborhood, in consequence of the numbers of disorderly persons who were harbored there. Judge Stowe thinks the following order:

WHEREAS, It has been alleged by petition in writing, this day presented, signed by T. J. Duncan and others, all going to show cause why this Court to take such action in the matter as by law required, a rule is granted to show why the license of said Gallagher, to keep said eating house, should not be revoked, is hereby ordered to be issued by the Clerk of the Court, directed to said Owen Gallagher, returnable on said day, the 2d day of September, and a copy to be served on said Gallagher on or before Wednesday next.

Wm. Bickel, of the First ward, was fined fifty dollars and costs for selling liquor without license.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

John Burke was tried for having committed an aggravated assault and battery on John Mischell, at American Hall, East Birmingham, on the 4th of July. The prosecutor alleged that he had been assaulted and beaten by the defendant, having his face badly cut, and sustaining a severe injury to the kidneys. The jury found a verdict of guilty of assault and battery.

John Mischell was then arraigned on a charge of selling liquor on Sunday, on oath of John Burke. This was a counter charge, to offset the assault and battery case. The evidence was conflicting, and the jury found a verdict of guilty.

Mischell was fined fifty dollars for selling liquor to a minor, on information of the same prosecutor, but as verdict had been rendered when the Court adjourned.

Public Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The usual family matinee will be given this afternoon, when the dramatized version of Dickens's "David Copperfield" will be performed. In the evening, the favorite actress, Miss Charlotte Thompson, will appear in the beautiful domestic play of "Out, or Cricket on the Hearth." The performance will conclude with the "Snow Bird."

On Monday evening the following will present for the first time the popular play "Caste," which is just now having a length and successful run in the Eastern cities. The play will be produced in an attractive manner, with new scenery and other necessary accessories, and it certainly should enjoy a run here commensurate with its success elsewhere.

Police Intelligence.

[Before Mayor Morrison, of Allegheny.]

STEALING FRUIT.

Mr. Benjamin Lutton appeared at the Allegheny Mayor's office and made information against six or seven boys for malicious mischief. He alleges that for some time past the boys have been in the habit of entering his premises, in Robinson township, and stealing and destroying his fruit. Three of the lads were arrested and held for hearing.

NUISANCE.

A man named Seibert was arrested for keeping a nuisance, on complaint of Daniel Gilmore, and was charged with allowing filth to remain on his premises, and also keeping a hog pen in his yard, whereby he is frequently annoyed by the stench and nuisance. A nominal fine was inflicted on him, upon the payment of which he was discharged.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

Charles Douglas, who was arrested on Thursday, charged with highway robbery, in knocking down and robbing Patrick Brannan, on the Work Common, the previous night, had a hearing yesterday, which resulted in his being committed to jail for trial, in default of bail.

[Before Alderman McMasters.]

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF.

Elizabeth Hitt was before this magistrate yesterday, charged, on oath of Catharine Wurmb, with malicious mischief. The parties reside in the Eighth ward, and Catharine alleges that Elizabeth maliciously cut a clothes line belonging to her, and damaged in the sum of some clothes, which had been left in the yard to dry.

WIFE DESERTION.

Mrs. Catharine Carter instituted legal proceedings against her husband, Andrew Carter, of South Pittsburgh, for desertion. Mrs. Carter states that she was married to her husband a number of years ago, and their domestic life ran on very smoothly up to the 6th of July last, when Andrew gave a written notice to her that he no longer desired her protection, she might pack her trunks and leave. He also gave notice to all store-keepers in the borough not to trust her on his account, and gave warning to the neighbors not to harbor her. Since that time, Andrew has entirely deserted her, and he refused to contribute or provide for her support. The husband was arrested and held to bail to answer the charge at Court.

[Before Justice Wampler, of McKeesport.]

THREATENED HER.

Robert Orr was arrested and taken before the above Justice yesterday, charged with surety of the peace, on oath of his wife, Jane Orr, who alleges that he threatened to take her life. A hearing in the case resulted in Robert being held in three hundred dollars bail to appear at Court for trial. He failed to procure the necessary security, and was committed to jail.

[Before Alderman Mullin, of Allegheny.]

ASSAULT AND BATTERY CASES.

David Burks appeared at the office of this Alderman yesterday, and instituted suit against one Joseph Jones, for assault and battery. The parties live in the Fourth ward, Allegheny. In his information, Mattis alleged that Shingles attacked him, struck him on the back of the head, then tripped him, causing him to fall down. After he was down, Shingles kicked him. Mattis then got up and ran to his home, when he was followed by all of the defendants, who collected and hallooed to kill him. Shingles and Jones have been arrested and held for a hearing. The other defendants are not yet in custody.

[Before Alderman Strain.]

QUARREL IN A BLACKSMITH SHOP.

Patrick Loftus made an information against one Bernard Little, and also against Michael Hays, charging the former with aggravated assault and battery, and the latter with simple assault and battery. The prosecutor keeps a blacksmith shop at Walker's Mills, in Robinson township, and on Thursday the defendants came to his shop to have a shoe put on a horse, when a quarrel ensued about the job. Little, it is alleged, picked up a pick handle and struck Loftus a violent blow on the face with it, inflicting him quite severely. Shingles also struck Loftus on the face with his fist. Warrants were issued for the arrest of the accused.

ALLEGED ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

Jack Aschein was charged with committing an assault and battery upon Joseph Podolsky. The defendant keeps a clothing store on Liberty street, and Podolsky is in the employ of A. Aronson, also a clothing dealer. A dispute took place between them which ended in a quarrel, and the defendant, it is alleged, struck the prosecutor a blow. A hearing in the case resulted in the discharge of the accused.

Isabella Matthews accused Minnie Watson with committing an assault and battery upon her. Isabella, in her information, alleges that Minnie assaulted her, struck her in the face, blackened her eyes and otherwise abused her. A hearing will be had in the case this morning.

TERRIBLE THREATS.

Mary Ann Kane was charged with surety of the peace in threatening to blow Ursula Moore's brains out and to burn her house down. The parties live on Mount Washington, and the alleged threats were made on the 6th inst. A warrant was issued for the defendant's arrest.

THE MIDDLETON MYSTERY NOT YET SOLVED.—The grand jury of Beaver county having found true bills against Thomas Hatch, Wm. Wise, John Wise, Washington Gordon, and James Parris, for the murder of Thomas Middleton, in November last, one of the defendants, Parris, was placed on trial at Beaver, and acquitted on Friday last. The evidence brought out was pretty much the same as that adduced on the cases that against Parris, on motion of J. H. Cunningham, District Attorney, the cases against Hatch, Wise, Stump, and Gordon were released on recognizance for their appearance at the next term of court. Thus the Middleton murder continues a mystery.

Messrs. Carr, M'Candless & Company, Jobbers in Dry Goods, Etc.

It is not expected that we can make to the public generally, and dry goods dealers in particular, in this form, anything more than a brief allusion to the new, full and complete stock of Dry Goods and Notions, which Messrs. Carr, M'Candless & Company offer for the trade this Fall. We had only a faint idea of its extensive character when by mere chance we first obtained a glimpse of it, but a subsequent visit to this establishment has served to convince our mind that it is no exaggeration for us to say that at no other dry goods house in this part of the country is there store so full and complete a stock of fall goods so desirable or more worthy of the attention of buyers, and when we consider the strictly liberal principles upon which the heavy business of this house is conducted, we are not surprised to find that it is so rapidly increasing. Not only does Messrs. Carr, M'Candless & Co., enjoy the distinction of being the leading representative Dry Goods firm in Pittsburgh on account of the manifest superiority of their stock at all times, but also because they possess facilities for buying which other houses do not. The senior partner, J. W. Carr, Esq., is a resident of Philadelphia, and is in constant communication with the importers in that and other Eastern cities, and the principal manufacturing firms, so that domestic staples are always in great demand, and being a gentleman of extensive experience and having a thorough knowledge of the markets and its fluctuations, he invariably buys at a decidedly greater advantage than is typically usual with other merchants, and the benefit of this system is wholly derived by the patrons of this firm, and enables them to lay in a stock at prices with which no other house can long compete. His familiarity with all the different grades and textures of both foreign and domestic goods; together with an equally valuable acquaintance with all the details of the dry goods trade, has made him conspicuously successful as the purchasing partner of this firm. Merchants cannot fail seeing at a glance the many and various advantages to be gained by patronizing such a firm, and we allude to this feature because we deem it of considerable importance to their interests, which we are always anxious to enhance, and to aid them in making their purchases this Fall. Messrs. Carr, M'Candless & Company's stock for the present season has been so admirably classified that buyers can form a perfectly satisfactory examination of it, and we feel bound to say in justice to the very large force of employees that their excellent qualities as salesmen materially assist in the business in selecting his goods. We cannot enumerate the stock as we found it, but in order to give the reader a general idea of its magnitude we have only this to add, that the assortment is at once complete in every particular and embraces Prints, Merinos, Alpacas, Lyonese Cloth, All-Wool-Delaines, Plaid Persians, Dress goods in all colors.) Plaids, Ginghams, etc.; in Staple Goods there are Ticks, Checks, Flannels, Denims, Jeans, etc., Brown and Bleached Muslins of every width; Linin Goods, Cloaks, Shawls, Woolens, Pant Stuffs, Overcoating, White Goods, Velvet Ribbons, Hoop Skirts, Balmoral Skirts, Corsets, Gauntlets, Umbrellas, Cloths and Cassimeres, Plain, Long or Double, Blanket Square, and Zephyr Shawls, of every color and pattern; Spool Cotton, Skirt and Corset Braid, Needles and Pins; a full line of Hosiery and Gloves; long and square Blankets, all grades, and other notions generally. These goods embrace all the foreign and domestic fabrics of their kind; and presents to the buyer an unusually large and attractive stock, all of which has been bought for cash and will be sold at eastern prices. In each department there is a full line of goods, all entirely fresh and very desirable. The members of this firm are Messrs. J. W. Carr, D. Candless, and J. B. Haines. They are gentlemen of persistent industry, and earnest purpose, who have attained an enviable reputation as merchants, and whose business system so admirably adapted to the times, has served to give a healthy tone to the mercantile element in the "Iron City."

MOZART MUSICAL INSTITUTE.—Miss Carrie A. Moody, a highly accomplished lady, whose musical abilities rank her as a leading representative of her art in this city, has assumed the Principalship of the Mozart Musical Institute, which is located over the Penn Store, at Mrs. Charlotte Blume, No. 43 Fifth street, at all respectable druggists. The Rape of the Lock.

This is the subject of the most entertaining of all Pope's works—the violent abstractions from the head of a lady of one of her locks, which is carried away in triumph as the mantua-maker's abduction of Helen from Greece. The interposition of the gods is effected after the manner of Homer, and the final climax is worked up in a very exciting manner.

But it would require a more powerful agency than the gods of Homer to prevent the "Rape of the Lock" that is constantly taking place in modern times. The effect of a fine head of hair on the critical beauties of our modern beaux and belles is too powerfully apparent. "Barker's Vegetable Hair Restorative" is the only agency that can be relied upon to prevent baldness and grey hairs can most effectually be prevented by this most delightful article of toilet use.

CALLAND EXAMINE THE NEW FALL STYLES at Spence's Fashionable Cloak and Mantilla Emporium, No. 72 Market street.

BUILDING LOTS IN LAWRENCEVILLE AT AUCTION.—A. Leggate, auctioneer, will sell on Monday, September 16th, at 10 o'clock, thirty valuable building lots, in the borough of Lawrenceville, to which especial public attention is invited. Also, one lot on the north side of Butler street, opposite the Cemetery gate, which are well adapted for the erection of business houses, Butler street being the principal business thoroughfare to the Cemetery. These lots are also about the only remaining vacant lots on the street. The other lots are splendidly adapted for dwelling purposes, and Hamilton street, which divides Mr. Duff's residence, one square North of Butler street. Sale will begin near the Cemetery gate.

LOT AND HOUSES AT AUCTION.—A. Leggate, Auctioneer, will sell on Saturday (to-day), at 10 o'clock, the lot and two dwelling houses, No. 20 Franklin street, near Railway Bridge, Fourth ward, Allegheny.

KING & AUSTIN, at their office, No. 20 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, Pa., are receiving orders for all kinds of fruit and ornamental trees, plants and shrubs, grape vines, &c., from their celebrated Nursery at Honeoye Falls, N. Y. Orders executed by Mr. King with reference to the climate and soil where the plants are to be put, and everything comes in the most complete order. It is of the greatest importance in planting that the trees be set at 32° from a very material advance. The effect of this advance will, no doubt, show itself to-day.

The report of sales in yesterday's paper for July and August, 1868, was a mistake of the party who furnished the report, and who will look 1867 for a year hence.

GOURLEY & LOGAN'S HAT AND CAP ESTABLISHMENT.—By reference to another column to-day's paper readers will observe the notice of dissolution of co-partnership by the members of this firm. Mr. Gourley will hereafter continue the business at the old stand No. 56 Mt. Clair street, where he will always be happy to see his friends. His new Fall Stock of Hats and Caps is at once complete and desirable, and in prices we must say that Gourley defies competition.

THIS is to certify that my son has been fourteen weeks sick with the typhoid and lung fever. Having been reduced to very great feebleness I began to discover symptoms of death. The doctors, etc., They told me that they could do no more for him. I was recommended to send for the Indian Herb Doctor, of 194 Liberty street. I did so, and the effect of his medicines on his worn and diseased system was like magic. He is now able to attend to my store.

His name will go down to all posterity, imblazoned with a wreath of fame, and generations yet unborn will name him but to praise him.

Valuable Lot on the North Common Allegheny at Auction.

A. Leggate, Auctioneer, will sell, on Saturday (to-day), at two o'clock, the second sixty foot lot west of the Theological Seminary, on North Avenue, North Common, measuring sixty feet front and one hundred and seventy feet deep. The late improvements on Irwin Avenue and the projected improvement of the Common render this a highly desirable locality additionally attractive. Terms at sale.

Desirable Fall Clothing.

If those of our readers who wish to replenish their wardrobe will call at Owen Byrne's Fashionable Merchant Tailoring Establishment, No. 14 Wylie street, we assure them that they will be certain to find the most desirable stock from which to select, and at prices which defy competition. Mr. Byrne is one of our leading fashionable tailors. He has now in stock, and for a few days will continue to receive, his usual supply of heavy woolens, such as are only found in first class houses. Mr. Byrne's charges are very moderate, and therefore, very attractive. Call and examine his stock. No trouble to show goods.

Inhalation and Atomization the Most Rational and Successful Method for treating Catarh and Diseases of the Air Passages.

AS PRACTICED BY DR. ABORN, AT NO. 124 SMITHFIELD ST.

Catarrh.

Catarh of the head is the commonest of diseases. In its early stage it is scarcely noticed. The patient complains a little of "cold in the head," but heeds not the warning. On, if he does, he is likely to amuse himself with the thousand-and-one slops and snuffs recommended by a regiment of self-styled doctors, or ignorant grandames. And so the disease runs on till it results in obstinate Coryza—Gravelo, or general Ozœna. Then comes the annoying symptoms of lassitude, painful limbs, aching back, tightness across the forehead, corrupt discharges, profuse lachrymation, hoarseness, sore throat, furred tongue, nausea, loss of appetite and general debility. If the disease is not soon arrested, the throat becomes inflamed by the putrid discharges, the bronchi irritated, and the lungs poisoned by the inhalation of air passing over the diseased parts, allow to stay but a few times a day, and pregnant with the disgusting effluvia. A cough soon ensues, which, aggravated by the filthy head accumulations gravitating downwards, continues until the lungs give way, and fatal Consumption closes the scene.

The slightest cold in the head, therefore, should receive prompt attention.—for the cure at this stage is easy,—but if allowed to become chronic catarh, it requires the best skill and a cure to combat. Indeed patients laboring under this terrible malady, have looked in vain for help. Such should know that Dr. Aborn has discovered a treatment sure to give speedy relief, and to result finally in a complete cure.

NOTE.—Dr. Aborn devotes especial attention to the treatment of all diseases incident to the Eye, Ear, Heart, Throat and organs of the chest. Will be professionally at his rooms, No. 124 Smithfield street, daily, except Sundays, from nine A. M. to four P. M.

THE SULTAN'S FIRST RAILWAY JOURNEY in his own dominions was made a few days since. His suite numbered seven hundred, and the cars were elaborately decorated. But a greater occasion attracts large numbers to H. Oppenheimer & Co.'s, Nos. 58 Wood street, who have just opened their new fall stock of Tailoring and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods. Fall styles now ready.

An Aged Man Made to Hear in Four Days.

I certify that I had been afflicted with a deafness and a disagreeable humming noise and sounds in my ear. When I applied to Dr. Aborn last Saturday I was so deaf that I could not hear a watch tick. After using his treatment for four days I find that I am relieved of noises and sounds, and can hear the ticking of a watch: I am seventy-four years of age.

In explanation of the apparent anomaly of this Company showing a decrease in its August earnings, while some other east and west lines exhibit increases, it is only necessary to say that the movement of the grain crop, from which such increased earnings arise, is thus far by the lines leading into Chicago from the south and west, and from that city by lines leading to and from ports on Lake Erie. The movement of the crop by all rail lines to the east has not yet commenced. The late advance in freight rates was also made so late in the month as to produce no favorable effect on the August earnings.

—Belding, Kelli & Co.'s interesting weekly circular, dated London, August 31st, and received to-day at this office, contains the following financial summary:

The week's working of special importance to report this week. An unusually large amount of gold was sent into the Bank of England on Thursday, and the returns of that establishment, a draft of which is given below, as well as of the Bank of France, continue to afford evidence of an extraordinary plethora of resources. The amount of paper offering for discount is so very small, that the difficulty is experienced in placing the enormous sums seeking employment at anything like remunerative rates, and the payment of the rate of discount is being made a thing of the past. It will make money even more plentiful. Both at the Bank and in the open market the applications for discount continue to decline, and the supply increases, and the arrivals of gold are also about the only remaining vacant lots on the street. The other lots are splendidly adapted for dwelling purposes, and Hamilton street, which divides Mr. Duff's residence, one square North of Butler street. Sale will begin near the Cemetery gate.

The market is very quiet at $2.75. Holders are firm, but there is little inquiry. L.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL BARRETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, FRIDAY EVENING, September 13, 1867.

Trade continues moderate in nearly all branches. Flour is in slight request and higher prices anticipated. Grain has been a small advance in wheat, but other kinds of grain are generally dull. Groceries are unchanged. The demand for bacon is good and prices still tending upward. Prices of most kinds of agricultural products are unchanged and nominal.

The receipts of some of the leading articles of produce per river and rail, since our last, were as follows: Flour, 1,867 bbls; apples, 150 bbls; wheat, 1,000 sacks; barley, 2,126 sacks; rye, 80 sacks, and oats, 501 sacks.

We quote as follows which are the wholesale store prices unless otherwise noted:

ASHES—Sales reported of 10 tons pearl ash at 12c.

LEAD—20 pigs lead sold at 10½c.

LIME—Sales noted of 10 bbls lime at $2.75 bbl.

FLOUR—Receipts fair. Prices range from $2.00@4.75 bbl, as to quality.

PEACHES—We hear reported sales of 150 boxes at $2.00@2.50 p box.

BUTTER—Choice butter is in demand at 25c ₱ lb.

EGGS—Scarce and in demand at 20c ₱ doz.

POTATOES—Choice Irish potatoes are dull at $2.25 ₱ bush. Sales of Jersey sweet were made at $3.50 @3.75 bbl.

CHEESE—Sales reported of 10 box W. R. at 12c, and 25 box factory at 12½@13c ₱ lb.

DRIED FRUITS—Unchanged. Sales reported at the city resales at $1.75@2.00 ₱ bush.

BACON, LARD, ETC.—Market firm. Sales reported of 20,000 lbs shoulders at 13½@13½c; 4,000 lbs sides at 15½c ₱ lb; 100 lbs hams at 20@23c, and 30 tierces lard at 14½@14½c ₱ lb.

LARD OIL—Sales of 55 bbls No. 1 at 92c.

TALLOW—Sales of 5,000 lbs No. 2 at 9c ₱ gallon.

COAL—Sales reported of 1,100 bush on the platform at $1 per bush. From country wagons, 35@40c is the general price.

BARLEY—Sales reported of 2,126 sacks of barley at 1½ ₱ bush.

WHEAT—We note a sale of 800 bush at $1.20 ₱ bush.

OATS—The only thing that can be said is that receipts are small, no buyers excepting millers, and a few of them, and prices are nominal at 42c ₱ bush. A great deal sells under these figures, and very little above them.

FLOUR—Our dealers and great difficulty in procuring orders for any of the medium and low grades of family and choice brands of flour. The crops about Ohio and other Western states is reported as overestimated. It is not expected that flour will vary much during this month, but as the season advances, lower prices may certainly be expected, notwithstanding the given out report of "short crops of wheat." Prices by dealers are $10.25 for spring, and $11.25 for winter. The city mills are selling superior grades of flour, in sacks, at the rate of $11.50 per bbl, and for second quality $11.00 per bbl.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, FRIDAY September 13, 1867.

Pig Metal.

In trade matters the market is fairly maintained, for first grades of anthracite, forge and mottling in light supply, scarcely equal to the demand, causing increased firmness on the part of holders of that description of stock. Common grades are in fair request, and prices firm at full rates.

The iron mills of the city are about resuming operations which will necessarily give increased activity in raw irons.

The shipping for the week were as follows: Anthracite 540 tons, bituminous coal smelted 1,220 tons, charcoal 427 tons; coke 300 tons. Total 2,700 tons and 116 tons blooms, against 1,340 tons and 200 tons blooms for the previous week. Total this year to date 87,000 tons.

Iron Bars and Nails.

Trade during the week has ruled about the same as last week. No large orders are reported, the demand is small, and although a majority of the mills are running it is not for supplies in stock, but to fill orders, and the manufacturers are not disposed to press, but they are selling from stock on the same terms as usual.

Since our last weekly review there has been no change in prices, but trade has considerably improved.

Copper.

A sale and nearly full trade is reported in sympathy with the general market.

Tin, Roofing, Etc.

Since our last report there has been no change in the market, and trade has ruled quiet. Stocks in New York here have its offering from first hands, and the business has been only to small lots from second hands, at 25c for straits, 27c for Banca, and 28c for English. Plates are in good demand, and rule steadily—the sales are 80 bxl. C. coke tin at $7.50 gold, and 1,000 do. I. C. at 10c, on prompt terms.

Imports from January 1st to August 31st:

Hardware.

The trade reported more active with a good demand, and sales of the week are large. Prices rule about the same as last week, with a tendency to higher prices for some descriptions, particularly in foreign goods. American goods are at a stand still, and can be purchased at fair prices; but with a tendency to advance, the reverse of foreign.

The New York market is reported to be "very active and excited, so much so that no change in notice in the market can be made from day to day, and the amount of anything selling last week though there was a large amount of business done, was very small, in view of the advance in gold, and currency premium, and the uncertainty of the future. It is noticed that there are more Southern buyers here, though all parties make small purchases. English cutlery is in good demand. Builders' Hardware is plenty and dull. Hammers, Files continue in good demand, and Saws, Planes and Edge Tools, are very scarce; prices steady. Tin and plated ware in good demand. Iron Wire in good demand. Pumbers Iron Pipes and Fittings are in better demand.

Glass.

The glass trade continues depressed and prices rule very low. Three only of the window glass factories are in blast, but several others will be fired up during the coming week, the manufacturers intending bridging over the fall trade with labor at the present enormous low prices, and hoping the blowers and other skilled labor employed by them will see the necessity for a reduction and propose it themselves. The eastern cities are full of foreign glass, and it is selling in price below the cost of production here, and our manufacturers say they must either get an early reduction on price of labor or close their factories. The amount of glass sold at our low quotations this week has been larger than for some weeks past.

Lumber.

The trade from yards continues active at previous prices. There is a fair stock of all kinds of lumber in market excepting shingles, which are rather scarce.

Leather and Hides.

There is no reported change in prices, but trade has ruled fairly active, with a full demand for all kinds of leather, and anticipations are for higher rates. Stocks are light.

Dry Goods.

Prices have no change during the week excepting in Lancaster and Glasgow Ginghams. The former is now quoted at 29c and the latter at 18c ₱ yard. The prospects for a good trade during the fall are favorable, as merchants from all sections of the country are either in the market or sending in their orders.

Miscellaneous.

The foreign and domestic fruit market is generally inactive. Several changes in prices will be noticed in our current quotations. Several changes will be noticed under the head of Manilla, Hemp, etc. Prices of Manilla have advanced and goods are still looking up. Since August 20th, prices of Manilla Rope advanced 1½c ₱ lb. Trade through moderate for the season. The Western jobbing trade is opening out with a fair prospect for a heavy fall business. There is a fair trade doing in soap and candles. Star candles are now quoted at 30@28c and crystalline at 22c ₱ lb—an advance. The quotations for Wrapping Paper are lower. Prices of flour are unchanged, but higher, and the tendency is to advance on account of light receipts, with a good demand, and a large advance in the western markets. Wheat is in light receipt, and choice red winter may be quoted at $1.20@1.25 ₱ bush. A large advance has taken place in bacon, and prices are still tending upward. There is very little doing in wool. Groceries are in f
